ITALIAN DEPUTIES VOTE IN FAVOR OF WAR.

ACTION WITHOUT DECLARATION IS EXPECTED AT ANY MOMENT.

Von Buelow Insists Austria Shall Entrust Her Affairs to Spain Rather than to the United States.

Latins will Probably Look First to Their Frontiers, while the Germans will Undoubtedly be Obligated to Withdraw Some of Their Forces from Russia—Unofficial Advice Give the Allies the Advantage at Gallipoli.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROME, May 20 (via Paris, 11:30 p.m.)—The Chamber of Deputies has adopted the bill conferring full powers on the government. The vote was 407 against 74. One member abstained from voting. The bill was passed amid great enthusiasm.

ROME, May 20, 7:20 p.m. (via Paris, May 21, 2:40 a.m.)—A royal decree issued this evening provides that all foreigners in Italy must register with the police within three days from today. Failure to meet the requirements of the decree will be punished by arrest and a fine.

ROME, May 20, 1:15 p.m. (via Paris, May 20, 11:15 p.m.)—It is asserted that Prince von Buelow, the German Ambassador, has insisted that Austria, in the case of war, shall not entrust her interests in Italy to the United States, but to Spain.

ROME, May 20, 3:20 p.m. (via Paris, May 21, 4 a.m.)—All members of the Cabinet maintain absolute silence regarding what step will follow the action of the Chamber of Deputies today in conferring upon the government full powers to make war. Former Ministers and other men prominent in public affairs declare, however, that the action of Parliament virtually was a declaration of war.

ROME, May 20, 1:15 p.m. (via Paris, May 20, 11:15 p.m.)—The names of those who contributed to the unification of the country—Victor Emmanuel II, Cavour, Garibaldi, Mazzini and a hundred other patriots—were read on the lips of the people and the wish has been expressed by all to emulate them.

When the sitting of the Chamber of Deputies began today, there were present 481 Deputies out of 500, the absence being due to illness. The Chamber was unusually quiet, especially as the names of the fallen heroes were read.

The entire chamber and the tribunes were filled with the people. The atmosphere was one of intense excitement. The people were cheering and waving flags.

For the members of the Cabinet, the action of Parliament was a declaration of war.

GREAT BATTLE IN THE BALTIC; GERMANS CAPTURE PORT OF RIGA

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, May 21, 3:33 a.m.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Copenhagen says:

"It is stated that the Germans have captured Riga, on the Gulf of Riga, in Northwest Russia."

"A private dispatch reports a big naval battle in the Baltic."

VIENNA (Austria) May 20 (via London, 8:23 p.m.)—In an official statement issued by the Austrian War Department the announcement was made that 1400 more Russian prisoners were captured in battles along the Dniester River in Galicia.

The text of the statement follows: "To the east of Jaroslavl and near Sienawa (in Central Galicia) strong Russian attacks were repulsed with severe losses to the enemy."

"The allied Germanic troops are gaining ground in the east and south-east of Galicia. We captured an additional 1600 prisoners in battles along the Upper Dniester. In one sector to the north of Sambor, the Russian were driven from their main defensive positions."

"We stormed a village six miles southwest of Mowiska."

"Along the Pruth line, the situation is unchanged."

"In a brief counter-attack to the north of Kolomea, we captured 1400 prisoners."

BERLIN STATEMENT. [BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN, May 20 (via London, 4:45 p.m.)—The German army headquarters staff today gave out the following statement:

"In the western theater: Gloomy activity, hindered active fighting in Flanders and Northwestern France yesterday. We made a little progress in the Lorette Hills."

"At Abbeville a night advance attempted by the enemy was repulsed after hand-to-hand fighting."

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle artillery duels were especially frequent. The French commenced an attack to the east of Ally, extending over a wide front, but were everywhere repulsed. In certain sections after fierce hand-to-hand fighting."

"In the eastern theater: We had no engagement with the strong forces of the enemy reported to be advancing on the line of Shadrav-Frauenburg."

"Russian attacks on the Dubysa were repulsed. Nine hundred prisoners and two machine guns remained in our hands."

"Yesterday we attacked to the north of Hodynka. We captured a hill and took 500 prisoners."

"Russian forces advancing south of the Niemen were completely defeated at Gryskakubda, Symtowo and Szaki. Remnants of the enemy's forces are fleeing in an easterly direction into the forest. Minor divisions still are holding out."

"The losses of the Russians in killed were very heavy and the number of prisoners for this reason increased by only 1000. Two hundred and four more machine guns were captured."

"In the southeastern theater: Our troops which penetrated across the San River, north of Przemysl, were attacked yesterday by the Russians in a desperate assault."

"The enemy everywhere was repulsed with very considerable losses. This morning we opened a counter-attack on one of his wings and stormed the enemy positions. He is fleeing as quickly as possible."

SEES FURTHER ENTANGLEMENTS IF ITALY ENTERS THE WAR.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Intense interest prevailed today among government officials and the large body of foreign diplomats on receipt of advice that war between Austria and Italy was now inevitable. Some official dispatches from Rome predicted an actual declaration of war before the end of this week.

The collapse of the Triple Alliance, now officially confirmed in the Italian Green Book, and the prospect of spread of the war to new battlefields and seas, it was everywhere recognized, foreboded further confusion and entanglement of the international relations of the European powers, the political effect of which on the map of the world and the alliances and enemies of the future is less calculable than ever before.

Only in the possible effect in Berlin on the tenor of the German answer to the recent Austrian note was there a direct interest for the United States in the Austro-Italian developments. Some officials believed the value of the public opinion of the most powerful neutral remaining would be an important influence toward a most friendly reply, while others thought the cutting off of supplies through the Mediterranean would cause the German Admiralty to permit little restriction in the activities of submarines.

The certain exodus from the diminishing family of neutrals of a powerful nation, with the possibility that as a consequence of expected territorial adjustments in the Balkans, Rumania, Bulgaria and Greece might be drawn into the conflict, overshadowed all else.

Italy's action was not unexpected in high official quarters. The United States has been kept closely informed of developments at the palace at Vienna and Rome have long been as early as three weeks ago such advice as were received telling of the denunciation of articles in the Triple Alliance predicted the failure of the negotiations and the certain entry of Italy into the war.

It is taken for granted a state of war between Italy and Turkey will follow soon. Consequently, much speculation is based upon the political effect of Italy's enlistment with the allies on the future of the Dardanelles, the Bosphorus and Black Sea ports and the possibility that out of it might come a proposal to neutralize these straits with Constantinople as a neutral city under joint protection of Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy.

MR. WALSH TOO ROUGH

His Own Confreres Find Fault.

Enter Objections to What They Consider the Tactics of a Bulldozer.

A "Little Brief Authority" Plays Smash with Industrial Commission.

Rockefeller, Jr., as a Witness, is Sure that the Right will Prevail.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Aggressive methods employed by Chairman Walsh in examining John D. Rockefeller, Jr., resulted tonight in a conference of dissatisfied members of the Industrial Commission who drafted a letter to the chairman urging that he adopt a more moderate attitude toward witnesses in the future.

Mrs. J. Borden Hariman is said to have been the leader in this action, which was rumored to be the climax of general differences of opinion over the conduct of the hearings. None of the members would talk for publication.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—John D. Rockefeller, testifying today before the Industrial Relations Commission for a second time in its inquiry into the recent strike against the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, was subjected to searching examination by Chairman Walsh, who questioned him about the personal attitude of himself and his father toward the striking miners. He will continue his testimony tomorrow.

After Mr. Rockefeller had read a statement relating to correspondence published since his appearance before the commission in New York, Chairman Walsh brought up the case of John R. Lawson, a member of the Executive Board of the United Mine Workers of America, recently convicted of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. He declared that W. W. Wilson, one of the jurors, had been identified as a traveling salesman for a biscuit company, who had exclusive sales privileges in the mining company's plants. Mr. Rockefeller's attention also was called to allegations that employees of the Colorado company, who testified against Lawson, were detectives hired by the company, and the chairman asked what the witness would do for the sake of justice if the allegations proved to be true.

Mr. Rockefeller, cool under rapid questioning by the chairman, said he was determined that administration of justice should be left to the State, and that if injustice was shown, the Attorney-General of Colorado would wish to try the Lawson case.

"Suppose," asked Chairman Walsh, "it should be brought indubitably to your attention that the traveling salesman for a biscuit company, one of the jurors in the Lawson case, had been given exclusive privilege of selling his products to all of your camps, would you suggest to the authorities that you did not think that fair with a man's life at stake?"

"I am not familiar with the conditions," Mr. Rockefeller replied.

"Should it develop that what you say is true, I would do whatever is necessary to see that what is right was done."

"Do you think it right or fair to try a man before a jury who was described with your company as I have described this man?" the chairman continued.

"I think that the jurors should all have been selected with the greatest care," Mr. Rockefeller answered, "and if any jurors selected were not properly fitted for the place they should have been excused. If it can be shown now that they were not proper men, the Attorney-General would want to try the case again. I presume the administration of justice should rest solely in the hands of the State."

Chairman Walsh told Mr. Rockefeller that the information regarding John Wilson had come to him from the Rev. Eugene Gaddis, formerly in charge of the Sociological Department of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, who testified yesterday.

EXPLANATIONS. After his general statement Mr. Rockefeller read another in reply to allegations that he had exercised a "personal influence" that extended even to the State House at Denver and to the Governor of Colorado.

"The facts," Mr. Rockefeller said, "are these: Last May, Ammons (Continued on Fifth Page.)

THE GREAT WAR.

The Situation to Date: Italian Deputies confer plenary powers on the government.

Capture of Riga by the Germans.

Naval battle in the Baltic.

Heavy fighting in Galicia.

London calls Kitchener "The Fallen Idol."

COMMENT ON THE SITUATION.

After all the Italians make up their minds to go to war, the situation is not so simple as it seems.

The German successes in Russia continue. Riga has fallen. The British are making a desperate effort to prevent the failure of army and navy to win the quick triumphs that inspire confidence in a people and a nation. Otherwise the diurnal and yearly motions of the poor red ball of clay continue to regular form.

Famine again menaces Mexico City. Villa troops have evacuated Monterey. The Americans are still holding out against the Yaquis in Sonora.

The invasion by the Germans of the Balkans is not so simple as it seems. The situation is not so simple as it seems.

The situation is not so simple as it seems. The situation is not so simple as it seems.

VERBAL CLASH IN RIGGS CASE.

Bailey Tilts with Judge and Threatens to Quit.

Declares Undermyer Mistaken Nearly All the Facts.

Disputes Comptroller's Power to Assess Big Fine.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Arguments became contentious and bitter today in the case of the Riggs bank against the Secretary of the Treasury, the Comptroller of the Currency and the treasurer, as former Senator Bailey presented to Justice Mc Coy the bank's opposition to the motion to dismiss the temporary injunction granted against the treasury officials.

Mr. Bailey's argument began with a clash between himself and Justice Mc Coy, which led to the lawyer's threatening to withdraw from the case after a rebuke from the bench.

Later, as Mr. Bailey continued, he was interrupted time after time by the defendants, who disputed his interpretation of the facts.

The interruption on several occasions precipitated rather heated exchanges.

Before the argument started, the atmosphere had been charged with tension by a denunciation from the bench of yesterday's proceedings, which Justice Mc Coy characterized as "incompetent" and "deliberate, if not malicious."

BAILEY'S REPLY.

Mr. Bailey, after declaring that Mr. Undermyer yesterday had "mistakenly" proceeded to reply in detail to the entire case, said that he occupied the entire day in his discussion, and will conclude his argument on the law of the case tomorrow.

Justice Mc Coy let it be known during the day that he probably would take the case under advisement for some time.

Senator Bailey was arguing for the admissibility of an affidavit disclaiming relations between the bank and Lewis Johnson & Co., bankrupt stockbrokers, when the clash with the court came.

Justice Mc Coy interrupted to say he had already ruled it would be admitted and that further argument only took time.

"Your honor has taken more time than I intended to take for what I intended to say," replied Mr. Bailey.

"Your remarks are highly improper," returned the justice. "Please understand that distinctly, I do not care for any more discussion. Another remark of that kind and some other counsel will argue this case."

Mr. Bailey turned his papers to the table and turning away replied: "If the court feels that way about it, I will withdraw from this case now."

"Do as you please about that," retorted the judge. "But don't make such remarks again."

Several of the bank's lawyers surrounded Senator Bailey and after some conference he said to the court: "I feel that I owe to my clients a duty higher than I owe to you. Therefore, I will remain and continue the argument."

THE COURT'S REJOINDER.

"I also feel that I owe a duty to your clients," replied Justice Mc Coy, "and that will lead me to dismiss what you have said from my mind."

Mr. Bailey began his argument by contending the comptroller, in fact, did not have power to assess $500,000 penalty for failure to make special reports.

"If he had the power," said the lawyer, "then we can get satisfaction here. But if he had no right to impose it, he is wrongfully withholding our property, and this court should interfere to protect us."

Mr. Bailey referred to Mr. Undermyer's discussion of the facts yesterday as "inaccurate."

"He did not fairly state a single fact in his argument," said Mr. Bailey. "I do not mean to reflect upon him in any way. I believe his misstatements were due only to his misinformation. If I had ever doubted the malice of the defendants, that doubt would have been removed by their answers here and by Mr. Undermyer's speech."

THE "PIPE LINE."

Mr. Undermyer's references to a "pipe line" between the treasury and the Riggs bank and the National City, Mr. Bailey characterized as "political accusations."

"I never thought political accusations proper to repeat when I was in politics, and I think they should be properly repeated in a court of law. I might as well say that while they eliminated the 'pipe line,' they have established another from the government to Kuhn, Loeb & Co. I do not say it, however. I might as well say there is a pipe line to the Commercial National Bank in Washington, but I will not say it."

The Commercial National Bank was a former assistant of Comptroller Williams.

Mr. Bailey declared the withdrawal of government funds from the Riggs bank on the ground that it was not a "commercial bank" was without legal power. Commercial paper, he said, was not better than stocks and bonds in the assets of a bank.

Attorneys for the treasury officials, he declared, had distorted the showing of loans by the bank to treasury officials.

"I have loaned money to officials in the Treasury Department is true," he said. "But these gentlemen do not supply the whole record. If they had looked further they would have seen that we lend money to men not only in the treasury but in all government departments. If they had looked further again, they would have found that we lend money to members of the House and Senate, without regard to political faith, section or power. If the facts were that we loaned only to treasury officials there might be some claim that the loans were made to influence them."

Taking up the charge of Mr. Undermyer that the bank had prospered by defying practically every section of the banking law, Mr. Bailey said: "I challenge these gentlemen to prove that a single section of the bank act has been violated except the unconstitutional deficiency of reserves admitted."

DENIES EXCESSIVE LOAN.

The charge that officers, directors or employees of the bank held excessive loans was flatly contradicted by Mr. Bailey.

he was supported by his associate, Frank J. Hogan.

The court cautioned Mr. Undermyer not to interrupt and Mr. Bailey continued. He disputed Mr. Undermyer's analysis of the real estate and stock transactions of officers of the bank.

"If this bank traded in real estate stocks and bonds," he said, "its acts would plainly have been ultra vires and under the law it would have been subject—not to the fine sought to be imposed by the Comptroller, but to forfeiture of its charter. The bank did no such business. But the officers in their individual capacities did handle real estate and stock loans."

There was nothing illegal about these transactions, Mr. Bailey contended, and he asserted that they were handled for the accommodation of customers of the bank. He said officers of the bank, in the utmost good faith, put up their own collateral to secure loans upon which the bank made loans, he said, supplied the funds used in the real estate and stock transactions.

"This was the officers' money," he added, "borrowed from the bank, and simply secured by collateral. One so-called dummy loan for $150,000, upon which great stress is laid, was supported by $115,000 of easily marketed, sound securities."

PRASIS MANAGEMENT.

The management of this bank is second to none in the United States," the attorney declared. "The bank's history in the nineteen years of its history as a national bank, so cautious have been recovered. This shows a loss of about one-fifth of 1 per cent of the bank's business. Certainly it is a tribute to the caution of the men who have handled the millions of loans made by the bank."

Mc Coy suggested that a bank, being a public institution, the power must be lodged somewhere, to authorize a close official supervision.

That power, Mr. Bailey replied, was conferred on the Comptroller, not upon the authority of special reports, but through the authority for the appointment of bank examiners to examine any and all of the bank's affairs.

MISSOURI RETALIATES.

Quarantine is Declared Against Six Western States, Including California, Nevada and Arizona.

COLUMBIA (Mo.) May 20.—A provisional quarantine against all livestock from the States of Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon, Utah and Washington was declared by the Missouri Board of Agriculture today.

The board took this action to retaliate against western States which have placed a quarantine on Missouri breeding cattle "unjustly and without cause," according to the opinion of State officials.

The quarantine order against the western States ends its quarantines against Missouri cattle.

On May 11, acting Governor Paine notified the Governors of eleven western States that their quarantines against Missouri livestock were unwarranted, because the foot and mouth disease had never appeared in Missouri. The Missouri quarantine became effective June 1.

QUARANTINE LIFTED.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) May 20.—The foot and mouth disease quarantine was lifted today by a vote of the Arizona Live Stock Sanitary Board. Shipments of cattle from noninfected territory, which includes all western States except Kansas and Montana, will be allowed to enter. Restrictions are placed on shipments from Mexico.

THE WEATHER BACK EAST.

Latest Blast of Winter Begins to Wear off and It's Gradually Turning Warmer.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, May 20.—Effect of the latest blast of departing winter began to wear off over the Middle West today. Chicago's maximum was 59 deg., but Upper Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa continue cold.

Heavy rains fell over all the East today. Wyoming, Colorado, Montana and Western Canada points dropped below freezing last night. Other temperatures:

Trust Talks-

No. 8 By JAY SPENCE, Cashier and Secretary, Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank.

"Don't delay making your will—it is your duty to do it now, while your faculties are clear. You should direct just how you wish your business or investments handled—direct how much a month you wish to go to your wife and family, etc. The most satisfactory way to handle such matters is to consult our Trust Department in making your will and to appoint this institution your executor and trustee. Sickness, death or temptation often complicate trusts when individuals are named—$300,000 deposited by us with the Treasurer of the State of California, and our ample capital and surplus, are guarantees of faithful execution by us of all our fiduciary obligations."

Resigning his position as President of the Bank of Orange, Mr. Spence came to Los Angeles in 1905, to take the Cashiership of the Metropolitan Bank & Trust Company. Shortly after its consolidation with the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank he was elected to the position of Cashier and Secretary.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Mrs. Goldsmith, president of the California Federation of Labor, was the guest of honor at the annual convention of the Pacific Slope Federation of Labor, held here today.

Mrs. Goldsmith, who is well known in the labor movement, presented a paper on the "Child-Labor Problem," which was the subject of a resolution adopted by the convention.

The convention, which was held at the Hotel California, was the largest ever held in the city. It was attended by delegates from all over the Pacific Slope.

Mrs. Goldsmith's paper was well received, and she was given a warm welcome by the delegates. She is a well-known labor leader and has been active in the movement for the abolition of child labor.

The convention closed today with the election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. Goldsmith was re-elected president of the Pacific Slope Federation of Labor.

The convention was a great success and was well attended. It was a pleasure to have Mrs. Goldsmith here and to hear her paper on the child-labor problem.

The convention was held at the Hotel California, which is one of the best hotels in the city. It was a very comfortable and pleasant experience.

Mr. Walsh too Rough.

sent Maj. E. J. Boughton, adjutant-general of Colorado, to New York. I never met Maj. Boughton, but he is not one of my associates and I am not one of his associates.

The misunderstanding which seemed to prevail in the East over certain phases of the strike, Maj. Boughton, as the Governor's representative, called on numerous people and inquired suggestions as to how the Governor's position and the attitude of the State might more effectively be brought to public notice.

Mr. Lee suggested that one method would be for the Governor to write a letter to the President of the United States and another to his fellow-Governors of other States, setting forth the situation as Gov. Ammons saw it. Maj. Boughton stated that he could not tell how the Governor would regard such a suggestion and that even he himself would have to convey the suggestion to Gov. Ammons through Gen. Chase, Maj. Boughton's superior officer.

Maj. Boughton suggested that perhaps a statement addressed to the public would be better. He got the matter into shape for his further consideration. Maj. Boughton suggested that perhaps a statement of letter he had in mind. As a basis for such a draft, Maj. Boughton sent to Mr. Lee a memorandum of his own views of the situation.

The memorandum written by me and referred to in one of my letters as having been sent by me to Mr. Lee was nothing more than a rough draft of a statement concerning the Colorado situation which I had drawn up in answer to a stationer which had appeared in the press, but had never been used. A copy of this memorandum was given to Mr. Lee and he suggested, was given to the press in the form of a letter to Mr. Lee's suggestion it occurred to me that this memorandum contained material which might be found helpful in that connection.

"Personally, I have never seen a copy of the draft which was sent to Mr. Lee. He has since advised Mr. Lee that he went no further with the suggestion, and that neither Gen. Chase nor Gov. Ammons ever knew that such suggestions had been made.

Letters submitted to the commission by Mr. Rockefeller include considerable correspondence bearing on the strike between himself and Mr. Bowers, who was chairman of the executive department of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company.

DUTY IS PAID
BY MRS. DUNLAP.WIFE OF MILLIONAIRE HAT MAN
SETTLES WITH THE GOVERNMENT.(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
NEW YORK, May 20.—The controversy between custom authorities and Mrs. Dunlap over $17,426 worth of jewels and furs which she brought into this country without declaration ended today when Mrs. Dunlap paid to United States attorney Carstarphen $26,148.

On January 1, 1914, Mrs. Dunlap, who is the wife of William Allen Dunlap, son of the founder of Dunlap & Co., the hat manufacturers, will give Carstarphen another check for $17,426, making the full duty.

In the meantime, part of the jewels will be held back as security for the final payment.

The jewels were brought into this country from London and were valued at $17,426. They were brought in by Mrs. Dunlap, who is the wife of William Allen Dunlap, son of the founder of Dunlap & Co., the hat manufacturers.

PARIS, May 20.—The Temps publishes a telegram from Rome dispatched at 3 o'clock, in which the correspondent says:

"All the galleries of the Chamber of Deputies were crowded at 1 o'clock, some time before Parliament assembled. There were 450 Deputies in their seats. Only one incident marked the opening of the session. That was when Gabrielle d'Annunzio entered the gallery. All the Deputies stood up in the cheering."

Then Premier Salandra, followed by all the members of the Cabinet, entered. It was a solemn moment. Then a delirium of cries broke out. "Viva Salandra" were the words, and the cheering lasted for five minutes.

Can't Force Straits.

some of the things that interested the Sultan very much. "I am convinced that the Dardanelles cannot be forced," said His Majesty when the story of the Dardanelles bombardment had been told.

The brave conduct of our troops in the recent operations against the strait permit me to conclude that, although the allies bent every effort and employ every means at their disposal, they will be unable to achieve their purpose."

His Majesty then asked Mr. Swine what his impression of the bombardment had been. Mr. Swine related how, while going through the streets of Tchaikale on March 18, he had been most unpleasantly impressed by the explosion of the exploding shells—fifteen-inch shells, from the Queen Elizabeth, said Mr. Swine, and each time a shell had exploded he had felt the uncontrollable desire to stop. An old Turk had seen this and had come beside him to give comfort, accompanying gentle pats on the shoulder with the words: "Yok, yok—Kismet."

That a Turk had in such an hour of stress found time to comfort another seemed to Mr. Swine a very good omen. To some words to that effect the Sultan added:

"But the man did not apply the proper word, my young friend. We use the word 'kismet' only in relation to the smaller events in life. If you are eating an orange and one-half of it should fall to the ground just when you are about to eat it, you would say, 'that would be an occasion for the use of the word kismet.' But in matters of life and death it is not appropriate to use the word 'kismet.' That word expresses exactly what the old man wanted to convey. It means that our fate is in the hands of a superior force and that what is to happen will happen. It is not for ourselves to do. The idea is known among you as fatalism. I believe it is a very good one, because it teaches the supreme and resignation to our fate mean a great deal in life. Formerly we Turks believed in it altogether. But we have come to realize that a belief in kismet alone will not do. We must work."

SINKING OF BOUVET.
His Majesty then asked for some additional details on the sinking of the French ship Bouvet and the British ship Irresistible. That the former had gone down within three minutes brought an exclamation of surprise to the kindly face of the old man, as if he regretted that so many human beings, nearly 800, had perished without the slightest chance to fight for life. There was another reference to the conduct of the Turkish soldiers in the coast defense service.

"It has been said that there was a strong factor of luck in our victory of March 18, which made it so complete and great," said His Majesty. "But we have a saying in Turkish which runs: 'Luck is infatuated with the efficient.'"

The translation of what His Majesty said next may have been a little faulty. Either that or irony was intended. It was this: "His Majesty says that he finds it very unlikely that the British commander-in-chief, Emperor William, take Constantinople just to import foodstuffs from Russia. Then His Majesty continued: "But our troops have shown their ability and willingness to do their duty. I can speak here not alone of the Turkish defenders of the Dardanelles, but also of those German who have so efficiently and bravely co-operated with them."

Dr. Ludwig was then given an opportunity to ask His Majesty what he thought of the conduct of the German and Austro-Hungarian troops.

"I would think all of you if you would say for me that my admiration for the German troops in the western and eastern theaters of war is so great that it is impossible for me to express in words my high opinion of their valor and efficiency. Concerning their commander-in-chief, Emperor William, I can only say that we in Turkey find that he may enjoy the best health for many years."

HAS IRON CROSSER.
His Majesty continued that he had been given by the German Emperor the Iron Crosses, first and second classes.

"I am proud of having been presented with these medals, which denote so many brave men," said the Sultan.

Turning to the American correspondent, His Majesty reiterated that it was a pleasure to him to know that two American newspapermen had witnessed the operations against the Dardanelles.

"I value the opinion of neutrals," he said.

After the presentation of the bill the president of the chamber submitted the question whether a committee of eighteen members should be elected. One of the 421 Deputies who voted their ballots in the affirmative. The other fifty-four were against.

The victory for the government was complete. The opposition was composed of Socialists and some adherents of ex-Premier Glott.

The chamber then recessed until 6 o'clock, when the committee was expected to report.

IS YOUR DAUGHTER PALE?

Does she inherit a delicate organization from you? The anemia of young girls may be inherited or it may be caused by bad air, lack of proper food, insufficient out-of-door exercise, hasty and irregular eating and not enough rest and sleep.

It comes on gradually, beginning with languor, indisposition to mental or bodily exertion, irritability and a feeling of fatigue. Later comes palpitation of the heart and headache. In a majority of cases, constipation is present. Often the patient craves unusual things to eat, such as starch or chalk. There may be no loss of flesh but the complexion takes on a greenish-yellow pallor.

There is no need to worry in a case of this kind. The treatment is easy and simple. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, non-alcoholic and free from any harmful drug, are just the tonic to remedy this condition. Improvement begins with the first dose. As the blood is made rich and the peculiar pallor leaves the face, strength and activity gradually return and if the treatment is continued until the last symptom disappears the danger of relapse is slight.

A booklet, "Building Up the Blood," which tells all about this treatment will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

BAPTISTS SHOW MISSION ZEAL.

Policy of Retrenchment is Met by Criticism.

Board's Action Defended as Financial Necessity.

Workers in Foreign Fields Add Spirit to Talk.

The purely unselfish side of Christianity—foreign missions—occupied the attention of the Northern Baptist Convention at the afternoon and evening sessions yesterday. This part of the work of the church, defined by W. E. Gifford of San Diego as the "science of Christianizing humanity," appeals strongly to the sentiment of the delegates.

The presence of zealous missionaries direct from the dark corners of Africa, China, India and other heathen lands gave added enthusiasm to the plans for spreading the gospel to the uttermost parts of the world. The leading missionary statesmen of the denomination and several of the most eager advocates of foreign missions, participated in the meetings.

The American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society had charge of the afternoon and evening programs. Prof. Ernest D. Burton explained the comprehensive work of the board of managers at the afternoon gathering. A statement of Henry Bond, chairman of the board, in regard to its financial policy, resulted in a spirited discussion.

When Mr. Bond announced that this year's budget for conducting the work of the society had been fixed at $234,000, as against $225,000 for last year, several leaders of the convention protested against the policy of retrenchment.

"I believe we are becoming too afraid of making debts," Rev. Mr. Gifford declared from the floor. "I think this policy shows lack of faith. There is brilliant idealism in taking a chance on the future."

"Money talks," Dr. Haggard declared. "If the board can be furnished with more money we will gladly add it to the budget."

Maurice Price, son of Dr. Ira Price of Chicago University, appeared on the program to represent the Baptist Student Volunteer movement.

"We are ready to go if you will send us," said the young man. "We can find ten, twenty or fifty students who will give their services if you will provide the capital. We make this as a challenge. If the offer is not accepted the young men will get tired waiting and will engage in other work."

Informal talks were made by Miss Helen Ely of China, Rev. Eric Lind, pioneer missionary in the Philippines, and Rev. Cornelius Ulrich of India. He received his education and early experience in Spain. He told of his work of translating the Bible into several dialects.

Rev. Mr. Farrar, who is a native of Russia, was on furlough in Germany at the outbreak of the European war. He was interested and DOLLARS MEET APPEAL FOR F-4 DEPENDENTS.

Four Thousand of Them Realized at Brilliant Ball, Where Beautifully-gowned Women and Braided Officers Mingle with Men of Fighting Ships—Absence of Admiral is Sole Disappointment.

BEAUTIFULLY-GOWNED women, resplendent officers glittering in gold and blue and the well-dressed men of the social elite of this city mingled with "Jack Tar" in the great crowd of persons gathered last night in the Shrine Auditorium to do honor to the dead of the lost submarine P-4. Before the last dollar had clinked across the counter presided over by Quartermaster Herman, the $4000 mark had been reached and it was assured that the widows and orphans made by the terrible tragedy off the harbor of Honolulu would be well taken care of.

It was a gala night for the navy, with but one disappointment. Because of pressing business Admiral Thomas B. Howard, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, was unable to leave his flagship, now stationed at San Diego. It had been arranged for the admiral to lead the grand march, and when his radio of regret reached Lieutenant-Commander Duff, on board the P-4, S.S. Iris, yesterday afternoon, the disappointment was great. At the moment it devolved upon Lieut. W. F. Newton to lead

ELKS EAGERLY AWAIT GAMBOL.

Thousands are to Frolic at Universal City.

Great Things on Programme of Sunday Events.

And All for the Christmas
Orphans' Fund.

Three thousand Southern California Elks are on their feet for the morning that will send them away to a spring start Sunday morning to Universal City, where they are to participate in the joys of a mammoth picnic, barbecue, rodeo and what not in the line of good cheer. It bids fair to be the greatest field day ever held in the West by the jolly antlered herd, good things to eat and drink, including marmos of joy, will be on tap from early morn until twilight shadows fall. Not a bet has been overlooked by the committee in charge. Arrangements have been completed and nothing remains undone but the finishing touches to be put on by the merry-makers themselves.

A typical western town of seven buildings, including a courthouse, jail, saloon, merchandise store, gambling shop and another saloon, has grown up over night on the ranch back of the Universal City. It was founded by George A. Magie, general manager of the Universal Film Company, and built under the direction of Lee A. Lawton, technical director of the big film city. More than 100 workmen were employed in the construction of Elktown. The management of Universal City has put at the command of the Elks the vast and varied resources of its great organization, and has bid them welcome to the grounds and hospitality.

FOR CHRISTMAS FUND.
Every penny taken in during the day will go to the Christmas orphans' fund of the Los Angeles Lodge, No. 79, B.P.O.E. These dispensers of charity hope to raise $10,000 for the poor and needy orphans of this city. Scores of the prominent men in the business and professional life of the city have sacrificed precious time and money in the past few days to make life happier and sweeter for unfortunate boys and girls.

The barbecue will be in charge of Joe Romero, premier knight of the bull pit. Romero is the last word in bull's head, chile con carne, corn on the cob, beans and vice versa. His feats have never been turned down by the National Board of Chaperons. He has made plans to feed 1000 stars.

One of the greatest baseball games ever staged outside the big brass will take place between the Elks and the Filmfams, the pride of Universal City. Frank Chance, the "Peerless Leader," will captain the Elks. Over the famous Cub slalisher, will hurl the saliva-ameared sphere down the bress path for the antlered knight Jack Barry, retired big leaguer, will cover the left grandstand, and Charley Kelly, who dug 'em out of the dust at the Philadelphia for a decade, will do the same Sunday. Art Shaffer, the ex-Giant infighter, will cover second, and so on ad infinitum. The Filmfams team is made up of real motion picture stars, who swear by the motion picture scene there won't be enough room on the scoreboard to chalk up their tallies.

COWBOYS AND BOXERS.
Then there will be a rodeo with real outlaws and cowboys. Henry McKee, former proprietor of a circus or two, will be in charge of this affair. He promises real heart-stirring action. Forty bronco busters will take part. De Witt Van Court, dean of boxing instructors, will stage several four-round bouts, and a battle royal between seven husky shon-bud gents.

Exalted Ruler Shannon of "59," accompanied by the general committee, went to Universal City yesterday and made final plans for the big show. C. G. Pyle, chairman of the general committee, has worked night and day getting things ready. Martin Berne will be chief of police. Superior Judges McCormick, Willis and Morrow will preside at the Elktown court. W. J. Ford and Ed Regan will prosecute. Jack Berlie, who was slain in the Times automobile contest, will be re-elected Mayor of Elktown unless Tammany methods are resorted to by his opponents, if he has any. A band of forty pieces will dispense real human-being music. It's going to be a grand old day, and it's all for sweet charity. Special train service has been arranged from the Hill-street station of the Pacific Electric. The first train will leave at 8:45 a.m., and trains will continue to depart as rapidly as necessity requires until 10 o'clock. Automobiles will convey the Elks from Oak Crest to the scene of the joyfest.

KEEPING UP WITH THE DISTILLERS.

SAY FOUR THOUSAND DOLLARS
WENT TO SLAKE THIS MAN'S THIRST.

A bill of particulars filed yesterday by the Los Angeles Athletic Club as asked for by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, sued on an indemnity bond of W. L. Patterson, former superintendent of the club, tells its own tale. The bill gives in detail the extent of Mr. Patterson's alleged patronage of the club bar from March 5, 1912, to January 28, 1914.

From champagne to whiskey highballs the liquid proof Mr. Patterson is alleged to have blazed during his incumbency is marked by the tombstones of denared drinks. The total cost which the club is seeking to collect is $3971.92.

The club alleges that Mr. Patterson, now connected with the Trade Inn at the San Francisco exposition, converted these liquid refreshments to his own use. The Guaranty Company is opposing the claim on a clause in the bond which requires proof, item by item, of articles taken.

Here is the list, fit for a Bacchanalian feast: 4186 long whiskey highballs at 25 cents, $1046.50; 637 cocktails at 25 cents, $159.25; 251 pints of beer at 10 cents, $25.10; 442 gin fizzes at 15 cents, $66.30; 184 large glasses of mineral water at 8 cents, $14.72; 4689 cigars at 20 cents, $937.60; 291 pints of whiskey at $1.25; 154 quarts of whiskey at $2.50; seventy-three pints of gin fizzes at 60 cents, $43.80; 146 bottles of mineral water at 17 1/2 cents, $25.55; ninety-seven boxes of cigarettes at $1.25; ninety-seven boxes of candy at $1.25; 122 pints of champagne at $2.50.

The bill of particulars was filed by Attorney H. W. Orlington, representing the club.

conferences with Mr. Carpenter. Dr. Marvin has remained as much as possible in the background, while here, preferring to rest up for the remainder of his trip. He will start for San Francisco within a day or so, where he will combine the business of inspection with the pleasure of viewing the exposition.

Dr. Marvin became chief of the Weather Bureau August 3, 1913. His appointment followed a long record of achievement as professor of meteorology in the bureau.

He is the originator of the table now used by the Weather Bureau for deducing the moisture in the air, having conducted the experiments upon which these tables are based. He has been called upon by the government whenever there was a difficult task to make of weather conditions and has invented instruments for measuring and automatically recording rainfall, sunshine, atmospheric pressure and snowfall. As yet, this last instrument has not been considered necessary in our local Weather Bureau.

The weather chief is an author, too, having written many dissertations and some books on meteorology. He is 37 years old.

Following his inspection at San Francisco, Dr. Marvin expects to look at Seattle and other northwestern cities. He will then start for his headquarters in Washington, where he will digest all he has seen, and will probably come to the same conclusion that many others have reached—that Southern California weather is what it is.

AS A DIRE THREAT.

Black Hand Men Take Big Risk as They Outline Danger With Revolver Cartridges.

One hundred revolver cartridges outlined in the form of a dagger were found on the rear porch of the home of M. M. Schon of the Pioneer Wine Company, North Broadway and Ord streets, yesterday. Several days ago blackmailing letters had been sent Mr. Schon, and less than a month ago the winery was damaged considerably by the explosion of a bomb supposed to have been placed in the winery by blackhand men.

The cartridges were placed carefully in perfect outline of a dagger, a process that must have consumed fully five minutes, according to the report of the police who investigated the affair.

Others to offer their services for the evening, and who appeared later, were Mr. Hector and Miss Smaller, Raymond Hitchcock was also there, closely guarded by his new manager, Mack Sennet. The latter employed Harry McCoy as an assistant, as Mr. Hitchcock showed signs of burning out in song. Chasney O'Leary appeared on the scene at 11:30 and delighted everybody with one of his famous Irish songs.

During one of the intermissions between dances the auditorium was darkened and motion pictures of submarine maneuvers, the first of their kind and truly remarkable, were shown.

The ships represented were the U.S.S. Cheyenne, U.S.S. Iria, all submarines of the K and H groups, and the destroyers Lawrence, Stewart, Hull and Hopkins.

IRRIGABLE LAND RECLAIMED MUST BE ATTENDED TO
IS THE RULING.

Officials of the local Land Office are in receipt of an official communication from the Secretary of the interior, calling attention to the recent ruling of that department on the question of the use of water in the irrigation of the lands within any project, and making it plain that persons endeavoring to secure such land must claim it and irrigate it in truth, and will not be allowed to take advantage of the land laws for speculative purposes.

It is announced that the Secretary of the interior will require reclamation and cultivation to the extent of one-fourth the irrigable area under each water right application or entry within three full irrigation seasons after the filing of water right application or entry, and of one-half each irrigable area within five full irrigation seasons after the filing, and it is also required that the land so reclaimed and cultivated shall continue to be reclaimed and cultivated.

These regulations will apply to all water right applicants or entrymen hereafter filing applications or entries under the provisions of the reclamation act, and also to all water right applicants or entrymen who have heretofore filed such applications or entries if they have accepted the provisions of the Reclamation Extension Act.

In the case of those who have heretofore filed applications or entries the first full irrigation season affecting the lands under these regulations is designated as the irrigation season of 1915.

To comply with the provisions of the reclamation law the land must have been cleared of brush, trees and other incumbrances, provided with sufficient lateral for its effective irrigation, graded and otherwise put in proper condition for irrigation and crop growth, planted, va-

Who Hasn't Longed for a Foreign Motor Car?

All stood and watched those luxurious big cars as they skimmed by us without a murmur. Everybody's admired them and longed for them. But the price has always been too high for the rich man.

Then Benjamin Riscoe—with the idea that the motorist should have the privilege of owning a French-designed car—went to Paris. And three years ago he gave us the French-Designed Car for $785 f.o.b. Factory

The Riscoe is the most surprising little motor car ever has been offered at anywhere near its price. It is the most distinctive car on the American market. If you buy a motor car as you would anything else—by comparison—you'll pick out the Riscoe as the one you would buy nothing but imported.

The Riscoe is undeniably the most beautiful modern car on the streets. It has that distinctive design style, class and smartness. It is the best car for the money you ever saw.

BURMAN'S CAR THROWN OUT.

Committee Says Special is Only Peugeot.

Three of Latter Cars are Already Entered.

Harroun's Car Admitted to be Maxwell.

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.), May 20.—The A.A.A. committee in charge of the examination of the various speed creations nominated as contenders for the 500-mile international sweepstakes race to be held at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway May 29 has decided that Bob Burman's Special must be thrown out of the great automobile chase.

BIG ROW.

The decision promises a big row on the eve of the elimination trials to decide the thirty-three fastest cars eligible to start. The track was in poor condition today as a result of heavy rains, the only driver to go out against time in the trials being Chevrolet in his Cornelian. His time was 1:11.1, which figures at a little better than eighty-one miles per hour for a lap. The time trials will begin in earnest tomorrow.

SAID TO BE PEUGEOT.

Burman has shown wonderful speed in his "special" and will make a strenuous fight to be allowed to start his "boat." The A.A.A. committee has ruled that his machine is nothing more than a Peugeot, and since three of these cars have been nominated from the contest. On the other hand, Burman stoutly denies that his car is a Peugeot and will put up the $100 necessary to appeal from the decision. He declares that he built the car himself and has a perfect right to enter the race if he qualifies in the elimination trials.

HARROUN BARRED.

Another car to go under the ban is the Harroun Special, it being declared a Maxwell. This is admitted and since three other Maxwells are nominated, the three fastest of the four will go to the starting line. Harroun says to-night that he would take no steps to have his "special" enter as such, but that if it proved faster than the other three Maxwells it would go to the post.

BELMONT'S PONY WINS HANDICAP.

SHARPSHOOTER FINISHES IN SECOND MONEY. LENGTH BEHIND WINNER.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, May 20.—August Belmont's 4-year-old gelding, Stromboli, by Fair Play-St. Pricella, carrying 118 pounds, with Jockey Turner up, won the Metropolitan handicap at the opening of the eastern racing season at the Belmont Park race track today. A huge crowd watched the twenty-second running of this classic event, for which ten horses started.

Schuyler L. Parsons's Sharpshooter finished second, three-quarters of a length behind the winner, with Capt. W. H. Cassin's third. The race was five lengths away. The time was 1m. 29.4-sec., just two seconds slower than the track record for this race, made by Fashion Plate five years ago, and equaled by Buckin, last year's winner. The Belmont entry was the favorite.

STALLINGS GIVES HARVARD POINTERS.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.), May 20.—George T. Stallings, manager of the world champion Boston Nationals, tonight gave the Harvard baseball squad instructions in "inside baseball." He is said to have consented to act as a sort of advisory coach to the team.

Maler's First Statement.

VENICE NOT TO HAVE MANAGER THIS SEASON.

THERE will be no successor to Happy Hogan as manager of the Venice Tigers this year.

If the team wins the pennant, the honor will be nothing more nor less than a memento to the late leader, who assembled the club.

The club will not have a manager in the sense that Happy Hogan was manager. The man who directs the club on the field from now until the end of the season will be known as the "acting manager," just as Dick Bayless has been for the past ten days.

DECISION.

President Maler reached this decision last night. Heavy with grief over Hogan's death, he would have preferred not to have spoken at all, but as a disservice to the club, he decided to speak.

Personally, he had not given the question of a new manager a thought. Pressure, however, had been brought to bear in certain quarters, and he had received numerous letters. Naturally, under the circumstances, these activities were exceedingly distasteful to him, as to every person with an appreciation of the propriety of such an occasion, and still bowed under the sackcloth and ashes of a great bereavement, he decided that there should be no successor to Happy Hogan before the season of 1915.

"And I thought he was bluffing."

When it came to a showdown, California, with the American game of football, flashed a full house. All the games that the Berkeley boys can handle are on the schedule. Stanford makes one last frantic effort to stand by the English game of Rugby with few contests of minor importance.

former All-American end. But the wire from Mr. Stroud lifted the cloud.

REGULAR CONTEST.

U.S.C. is to meet California at Berkeley and yield next Thanksgiving Day at the regular brand of football. The California freshmen are to entertain the Trojan freshmen eleven at Berkeley early in the season. Harvard has also clinched the big trip for the U.S.C. Rupture between the schools was caused by California's insistence that freshmen be not played in "varsity" competitions. To this Stanford, with a student body one-fourth as large as that of her rival, would not accede.

Alumni committees which look up the situation gave up in despair today and reported no chance of agreement for at least a year.

The schools began playing Rugby in 1904. Stanford has won six games, California three, and one was tied. Attendance has run about 20,000, being limited only by the size of the stadium, and with tickets always at good premiums.

The determined, conflicting stands taken by the student bodies of Stanford and California on the freshmen eligibility question caused the failure of the attempted arbitration, which was undertaken at the request of Stanford. According to members of the committee, California stands firmly upon its contention that freshmen shall not be permitted to play on varsity teams, although to save the relations of the two universities, Stanford offered to eliminate the freshmen from competition for one semester.

There is not the slightest possibility of a new agreement between the universities at this time," said a member of the Stanford committee today. "It will take at least a year to reach an agreement."

A Stanford football authority said today that Stanford would be dependent, to a great degree, upon the action of California, because the High Schools would undoubtedly follow the lead of California. Stanford, therefore, he said, could not play a game different to that at California last because the supply of High School material would not be available.

The Tiger faculty will not allow the Occidental team to meet any college which tolerates the presence of athletes in varsity competition. As U.S.C. will use freshmen against Occidental and in the game with Utah, the Occidental boys may not associate.

THREE OTHERS.

There are three other Southern California teams to go down in the U.S.C. contest register. Troop College, the Los Angeles Athletic Club and the Sherman Indians are in for a share of the gridiron activities next fall.

Troop will be allowed to use anything in the college and the game will be played under a special dual agreement. The Los Angeles Athletic Club game will be a regular scheduled game of the preliminary season, and the Indians, who are to come back next fall, will be taken on under the same rule which governs the games between California and the eastern institutions. The players must be Indian students, and that's all.

Warren Howard went north last week to plan his moves in case California and Stanford resumed in athletics to tolerate the presence of athletes in varsity competition. He was advised by California men to prepare for a great American football season, and in the game with Utah, the Occidental boys may not associate.

RUGBY PASSING.

"The death knell of Rugby was sounded when the high school jumpers realized this," Stanford students realized this, he said, "and they will make a last stand for the game with a few matches which will be played at Berkeley." he Titans of San Francisco.

HOME RUN BY DERRICK WINS

Portland First-sacker Puts Ball Against Fence.

Venice Takes Lead in Sixth, but Loses It.

Carlisle and Hettling Star on the Defensive.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Portland defeated Venice in the opening game of the series before a small crowd at Washington Park yesterday by a score of 5 to 4.

It was a home run by Fred Derrick in the eighth, driving Davis across in front of him, that changed the tide of the contest and assured a Portland victory. At the time, Venice was leading, 4 to 3. This switched the lead, and the Beavers did not relinquish it. Venice was unable to do anything with Corvick, who relieved Johnny Lush. The latter retired after the home club scored three in the sixth.

Henley went the full route. There were just two bad spots in his performance. One in the third and the eighth.

THREE-RUN LEAD.

Portland took a three-run lead in the third, and Venice came back with one run in the last half of the inning. Three runs in the sixth put them in front, where they remained until Derrick followed up a walk by Davis with a drive to left center that was good for four bases.

The game was featured by some fine fielding on the part of Carlisle, whose stellar work was a big factor in keeping the count reasonably close. Hettling's catch of Lober's deep foul in the third was also a fine piece of work.

Stump pitched in the third with one down. It was the first hit off Henley. Lush doubled to left center, scoring him. Davis placed a Torch Leaguer in right. Wilhoit losing the ball after a hard try. It went for a double. Lush, who had staved at second to see whether or not Wilhoit could make the catch, only reached third. Derrick sent both men home with a single to right. He was out trying to go down to second on Wilhoit's plate run.

SPEAS TRIPS.

Spencer singled for Venice in the third, and took third on a lucky double to right by Henley. Speas tripped and fell in going after the drive, which was a short fly. Carlisle snatched it from the glove, going to third. Henley was caught at the plate on Berger's grounder to Bates. Wilhoit, and Kane were infield out.

Carlisle tripled to left center with two out in the fifth, but the blow failed to score, as Berger grounder to Davis.

Wilhoit led off with a double in the sixth, and Kane went to third, but too late to force Wilhoit. This ruled out a sacrifice. Henley batted at second. Wilhoit scored on the play. Kane scored when Purtilt singled to left, and Hettling moved to third when Lober threw wide to that base in trying to stop any advance. Spencer batted out at second. Bates, and Hettling counted. Henley popped to Bates and Carlisle fanned.

DERRICK'S HOME RUN.

Venice retained this narrow lead until the eighth. In that inning, Henley waded U.S.C. the first man to face him. Derrick drilled the ball out between Kane and Carlisle. It went to the fence. Carlisle played the ball back toward the plate as rapidly as possible. Purtilt took his throw and made a perfect relay to Spencer, but Derrick had it beaten by half a stride. The next three men were easily retired.

Carlisle led off with a double in the ninth that discouraged further scoring on the part of Portland. Fisher scratched on a clean hit by Lober. Stump drove a low fly to short left. Carlisle made a shoe-string catch, and threw to Berger, easily doubling Fisher, who had almost reached third. Berger whipped the ball along to Ribberg, but Lober

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY SAME GAME AS BERKELEY.

MOST OF the high schools of Southern California will play American football next season. This decision is the result of the Berkeley-Stanford break in the north.

The local high schools have been waiting several weeks to see how the northern affair turned out. Many of them would just as soon play one game as another. The decision of Berkeley in adopting the American game, however, seems to have carried everything with it.

The Interurban League has adopted American football, six of the eight members voting for it. This league is composed of such schools as Monrovia, South Pasadena, Harvard, Compton, Glendale.

The City League is almost equally divided with the advantage, if there is any, on the American side. Los Angeles and Hollywood are strong for the patriotic sport and are going to play it, whether or no. Manual Arts is rather undecided and has two teams on the field, one Rugby and one American. The sentiment at Manual seems to be for the latter and the Toliders will jump within a very short time. Poly and Lincoln probably will stick to Rugby.

San Bernardino of the Citrus League will follow the University of California. Redlands High is practicing the American activity with the University of Redlands. Riverside is on the fence, but will follow Redlands's lead. Pomona cannot get over her love for the English game. There will be a meeting of the citrus belt schools a week from Saturday and the matter will be thrashed out.

Rugby is decidedly in the minority. Its fight seems to be a losing one.

ANGELS EASILY
DEFEAT OAKS.Kuhn, Manda and Ness Give Game Away.Silent Bill Burns has Two Bad Innings.Harry Woller Hits a Hard
Clip.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Oakland literally booted its way into defeat today, and that, too, on the "hum town" lot. Red Kuhn, who essayed to catch and let the Angels have their own sweet way in running the bases, Carl Manda, whose thinker wasn't thinking fast enough to keep him warm, and Jack Ness, who, not to be outdone, contributed to the error column, are to be held up before the Oakland fans as chiefly to blame.

Manda, likewise, was not lacking in that department of the game, but it can be said for the second pitcher that his misadventure was without trouble, thanks to catching Jack Ness napping off first. In the third he was not so fortunate and the Oaklanders earned two runs that ought to have been quite enough for a victory.

Then and there Burns clamped on the lid. One more hit was all he allowed, and Christian's chaps never got within halting distance of the plate, save when they went up for a time at bat. Out of all the fuzzy fielding there was one brilliant play, a sacrifice stunt by Roney Middleton, who one-handed catch of Earl Magers's inner in the sixth saved a potential home run. It was one of those side-arm catches with Middleton fairly getting the ball at his chin top. Naturally, as usually happens, Roney came to bat with the retreating of the side and was given the applause that was his due.

TWO BAD INNINGS.

Silent Bill Burns, southern heaver, had two bad innings. In one of those paragraphs he got away without trouble, thanks to catching Jack Ness napping off first. In the third he was not so fortunate and the Oaklanders earned two runs that ought to have been quite enough for a victory.

Then and there Burns clamped on the lid. One more hit was all he allowed, and Christian's chaps never got within halting distance of the plate, save when they went up for a time at bat. Out of all the fuzzy fielding there was one brilliant play, a sacrifice stunt by Roney Middleton, who one-handed catch of Earl Magers's inner in the sixth saved a potential home run. It was one of those side-arm catches with Middleton fairly getting the ball at his chin top. Naturally, as usually happens, Roney came to bat with the retreating of the side and was given the applause that was his due.

BOOTING STARS.

Kuhn started the booting process for the defeated warriors in the third. Although Los Angeles had filled the bases in the second on a fielder's choice, a run hit by the pitcher on a walk, there were two down and Burns found himself fanned with little effort.

It was different next time around. With two down, Harry Woller planted a liner through the pitcher's box field. He stole second and hustled around to third on Kuhn's wild throw. Then McKullen chomped a hit, and third and the run was across. Marcan bobbled on Harper's grounder, but the latter was forced when Abstein hit to short.

OAKLAND RUNS.

Both Oakland runs were shot across in the same inning. Litchi was passed and Pruiett laid down a sacrifice. Marcan poked the ball clean to center to register the Oak short fielder and was in turn forced by Mundorf. Middleton doubled to left, the ball getting away from Harper, and Mundy came home on high speed. Mander's pop fly for Marcan and Terry hit an easy one to Pruiett.

GIVE AWAY.

Not so long thereafter the Oaks gave it away. It happened chiefly in the fifth. Pruiett walked, Magers tried for a sacrifice with a bunt along third. The ball was going foul beyond any question, but Mander didn't wait to deny it out. He fielded the ball, and his throw to first was naturally of the wild order. Both men moved up on the bases. A single by Harry Woller to first and an error by Ness in the recovery helped to tally the pair ahead. Then Harry stole third, while McKullen fanned and was driven home as Harper put the ball safely into left. Abstein raked a pop fly for Marcan and Terry hit an easy one to Pruiett.

USELESS RUN.

Not until Burns was slinging in the ninth did the Los Angeles crew add another and absolutely useless run to their list. Burns once more fanned but Magers walked. Metzger doubled into right and a walk on purpose for Woller filled up the bases. McKullen's major sacrifice fly to left boosted Magers home with the last of the five. The score: LOS ANGELES.

AT THE STAGE DOOR

IN GRACE KINGLEY

Gets Presents Back.

John W. Constable of the Sullivan-Comstock vaudeville circuit, in to resume the ownership of that circuit on Monday, according to a wire received yesterday. The Empire Theater therefore will be again under Constable's management. The deal whereby Marcus Lee turned back the Sullivan & Constable chain of theaters was concluded yesterday.

Deane Worley, for many years manager of the Empire in this city, has been again appointed to fill that position. Fred Pollette, Lee's manager, has resigned and will accept a position with his former firm as manager of the New York house.

Would-be Californian.

Chauncey Olcott declares his intention of retiring from the stage at the end of next season, and taking up his residence in Southern California. Already he has secured an option on a beautiful site in Hollywood, and will build a palatial mansion in the nation style.

Mr. Olcott is a great lover of horses, and owns several, which at present are stabled on his Long Island estate. He will bring them West.

Also, he owns a flock of automobiles, and says he means to tour California as soon as he finds time for the exercise.

Dauntless.

Who says the show business is bad? Glance over the Mason bookings for the remainder of the season. Here are some of them: John Drew, "Rosemary," to follow Maude Adams; Billie Burke in "Jerry," her latest and greatest success; Alfred Hitchcock's "On Trial," the play which created a sensation in New York this season, and which employs motion picture methods in its showing; Elsie Ferguson in "Outcast."

More of the Same.

For the matter of that, look at the Orpheum bookings: "Madama Butterfly," "Leslie Carter," ditto, and during one week a blinding constellation of stars, including Emma Carus, Lew Dockstader and George Damerel.

Hello, Betty.

Betty Harte arrived from New York yesterday, to play opposite Mary Pickford in Miss Pickford's next picture. The Famous Players will begin work on it next week.

Miss Harte was a former Sally star, and later visited Cuba with a Frohman company, to take part in the filming of "In the Heart of Midlothian" and "The Prince of Demos." In the new Pickford picture, Miss Pickford will play the part of a slave, and Miss Harte will play the role of a woman of the New York tenderloin. The picture promises to be one of the most dramatic ever placed on a screen.

Ab-Ha!

David Horsley, who left for the East about a month ago, without stating the reasons for his trip, though it was rumored that his mission was an important one, has left New York for the Coast, and will arrive early next week.

The important mission, according to his western management, is now accomplished, being nothing less than the moving of the Min-A Motion Picture Studios from Bayview, N. Y., to Los Angeles. This means either that the Min-A people will be placed at the Stockton motion-picture plant, on the corner of Washington and Main streets or will be located at a new studio, probably in Hollywood. In any event it means another important addition to the Los Angeles motion-picture colony.

Wellcome, Faythe.

Faythe Chapman is to play the part of "Queen Elizabeth" in the forthcoming production of "Master Willie Hens," at the Burbank. In private life Miss Chapman is Mrs. James Neill, and she is known as one of the most capable leading women in the country. Miss Chapman declares she will emerge from her retirement only for this one engagement.

Handsomeness.

Orrin Johnson, on whose brow rests the maddening laurel wreath, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday, and immediately visited Manager Morosco's office. The result of the conference isn't yet known, but it is rumored he is to appear in one of the new Morosco plays, and also do some picture work for the Morosco-Boworth company.

Miss Winslow.

Miss Winslow, who owned San Francisco in the "Spring Maid," is said to have again jumped the claim in "Mabel."

Spartan Staff.

There is a strong-man contest among the actors of the Burbank company, due to the spirit of emulation aroused by the circus acrobats. At present, Forrest Stanley is the most perfect specimen of physical manhood, having been in training at the Athletic Club for several weeks; Eddie Lowe is second, being an inch smaller in the chest and an inch bigger in the waist than Stanley; Louis Hanson may be seen any morning near his West Adams-street home running up and down hills and puffing with loud and sonorous puffs.

But James Corrigan says his "figure" is his own, and he is satisfied with it just as it stands. Charlie Reggies refuses to take part in the argument. He contends that his reputation as an athlete is thoroughly established by his appearance in the George M. Cohan musical comedies, especially the "Yankee Consul," whose record was six men before breakfast.

Warfield as Shylock.

David Warfield is to appear in Shakespeare next season for the first time in his career. He will play Shylock in a big spectacular Belasco revival of "The Merchant of Venice."

Marathon Note.

Ida St. Leon, playing Polly in "Polly of the Circus" at the Burbank, yesterday got arrested yesterday for speeding up Bingo on a bridge just out of town.

Miss St. Leon had been for a morning gallop, and time went so fast that the sacred machine hour drew near all unaware. She asked a hick by the roadside to stop the time and learned it was twenty minutes past eight. Then she and Paul Revere across a wooden bridge, and was stopped by a country constable.

"Please, sir," said Miss St. Leon, "I'm Polly of the Circus and I've got to get back to town for the performance. Anyhow, you know Bingo forgot his speedometer this morning!" Whereupon his nine unhandled her.

Taps.

There will be no performance at the Mason on Tuesday evening on account of that being the day set for the funeral of Charles Frohman. It is said that theaters under the Frohman management throughout the country will observe the day.

Memorial service will be held at the Mason at 10:30 a.m.

Barrie, the Silhouette.

The appearance of Maude Adams in "Quality Street" is said to be the result of her first meeting with Mr. Barrie in London. It was there that she talked very much—only she remembered later that she did nearly all the talking.

Barrie is said to be one of the most charming companions; yet he rarely opens his mouth except to place the stem of his pipe in it.

A story is told of a meeting of literary people in London. It was decided to place Barrie in the chair. Later a number of those present commented on Barrie's meagerness of speech.

These same people were astonished to pick up a weekly newspaper a few days later and to find a most interesting account of Barrie's volubility at the meeting, with a transcript of some of the bright things that he said. The joke came out later when it was learned that the account was written by the taciturn Scott himself.

We Know Better.

May we of the West properly be classified in the genus "jay"? Or are we merely paying for the sins of the East?

Middle West? Anyhow, "is said on authority that the reason we aren't to 'Please Adams' in 'The Legend of Leonora' is because they didn't 'get it' in Oklahoma, Iowa, and Kokomo, Ind. In fact, certain bourgeois gentlemen forgot that in the theater lobby of those burbs and solemnly declared the play wasn't 'natural,' also that 'there wasn't no such animal as a lady who would push a 'gent' off a train just because he kept the window open when her little girl ran a cold!'"

The Young Idea.

Can youth be helped to climb Parnassus? Arthur, Manager Seth D. Perkins of the Woodley, having taken solemn communion with himself about the education of youth in our fair city, has decided to give away balloons to children attending the film classic "Enoch Arden." But why balloons? Why not those cutey autos propelled by hot air?

How.

The Selts company is shortly to produce Winston Churchill's "The Crisis," with Gollie Campbell directing.

Star Dust.

Henry Wallhall is to be featured in a four-reel feature, "The Failure," for the Reliance.

New Twinkle.

Jane Cowell is to play the lead in Cleve Kincaid's "Common Clay" under the name is produced in New York next August. She is to be under the management of A. H. Woods.

Can Write, Too.

Agnes Johns, at the Hip, is a "sure nut" playwright. Her newest sketch, "End of the Road," will be presented next week at the Hippodrome by Miss Johns herself, with her partner, Will Abrams.

Spreading American Game.

BAN TO SEND BASEBALLS TO CANADIANS AT FRONT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, May 20.—The most famous ball players of the American League will be asked to autograph some of the baseballs which President Johnson will forward among other paraphernalia to the Canadian soldiers in France who want to while away the intermission between battles in playing the American national game.

President Johnson said today he would ask the players to contribute signed baseballs to the collection of material he will provide, which will include, in the first consignment, five gross of balls, fifty bats, six masks and six catchers' protectors, with six sets of new uniforms to go later.

TAKING HOLD.

Reports reaching Chicago from France indicate that baseball, introduced among the French and British soldiers by Canadian troops, who learned the game at home, is taking a firm foothold back of the trenches. Sporting extras with box scores are among the crying needs of the men in the European trenches, and the paper containing a description of the Johnson-Willard gifts will meet a general circulation, according to a let-and a few athletic clubs, but it will hardly be a go.

"I give Stanford just one year at Rugby, with California playing American football. Stanford can stand to play the game at a financial loss for a year, as she has a large sum in the treasury, while it is a case of make the money with California on account of the debt hanging over the new athletic field."

ACTIVE SEASON.

California has an attractive tentative football schedule already arranged. The schedule includes the greatest teams from the Northwest, the Thanksgiving Day game with the U.S.C. variety and a number of freshman contests. California has dual agreements with the different colleges, just as U.S.C. has, and it is the claim that these institutions are following the eastern system, while Occidental is working on the Middle Western conference plan.

The U.S.C. faculty Athletic Committee is said to now be working on a set of rules to govern athletics in the university which are patterned after the rules in force at Cornell, Pennsylvania, Yale, Dartmouth and other eastern colleges.

At present U.S.C. will use freshmen for varsity competition. The California agreement does not expire for another year, and during the time that this old agreement is in force the Trojan freshmen will be allowed to keep company with the upper classmen in athletics; but it was said yesterday on the U.S.C. campus that as soon as California demands a new agreement or the university could stand the loss of freshmen, they would be barred from varsity competition.

Freshmen will not be routed from the field entirely, as they are under the conference rules. The first-year men will have their own freshman inter-collegiate contests, and a series of games and matches with the strongest high school teams. This is the system followed in the East, and is to be adopted by both California and U.S.C.

The baseball schedule is as follows: L. A. City vs. San Diego, Citrus League vs. Orange county, L. A. County City Section vs. L. A. County Central Section, L. A. County Bay Section vs. L. A. County Valley Section.

The first game of the championship series will be played on May 23. Hereafter in case any two colleges playing schools in inter-league championship games are not able to determine on which home grounds a game shall be played it shall be the duty of the southern California manager for that

COUNCIL PLANS AMERICAN FOOTBALL SCHEDULES

Important Meeting.

A MEETING of the Southern California Athletic Council was held yesterday afternoon at the Los Angeles High School. The council elected W. C. Wilson State representative, and E. W. Oliver was continued for another year as State representative. The following managers were elected: Baseball, Mr. Moberly of Compton; American football, Mr. Kienholz of Pasadena; Rugby football, Mr. Ricker of Pomona.

The time of the council's next meeting was set for Thursday afternoon at the Los Angeles High School. The council will then divide into sections and select managers for the several sports. Kienholz, the manager for American football, the manager for Rugby football, and the manager for the other sports, will be selected at that time.

P. A. just-jams-joy against your palate!

No matter whether you pack your old jimmy pipe brimful or roll a makin's cigarette, Prince Albert certainly will make you feel like a two-year-old on the tobacco question just as soon as you hitch it up to a match. And that's a fact!

You can't anymore tell how good P. A. is just from talking about it than you can judge the depth of a well from the length of its pump handle. You get personal information dug right out of a tidy red tin or toppy red bag quick as you can conveniently beat it to the nearest shop that sells tobacco!

No matter how much you think you can't smoke a pipe, or roll a makin's cigarette, no matter how much you have been tongue-scoured, you can smoke a pipe or roll a cigarette if you'll take a few grains of faith and believe in Prince Albert. It can't bite your tongue and can't parch your throat, because the bite and the parch are cut out by a patented process owned exclusively by R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company.

No other tobacco can be like Prince Albert. You'll get the quick cue on that!

Buy P. A. everywhere in approved bags, for, tidy red tins, 10's; posied and half-pound tin humidor—and that classy pound crystal-glass humidor.

Gather round here a minute!

First thing you do next, buy some Prince Albert and have a party. Get chummy with it in the tidy red tin and you'll mighty soon graduate to the crystal-glass pound humidor that's a thing of beauty and a joy forever. It keeps Prince Albert's the high top-notch of perfection—and keeps you jimmy joyous and cigarette makin's happy!

PRINCE ALBERT

DID NOT CALL HIM A SHRIMP.

SO WIFE ASSERTS IN THIS DIVORCE CASE.

Employee of Husband Says He Gave Her a Cane to Strike Her Better-half One Day to Save Her Pits When She Was "Lacking" Him—It Is Denied.

Max Rappaport and his wife, Esther, furnished an afternoon session of the divorce court yesterday. Mr. Rappaport denied emphatically that he had ever called his wife "a little shrimp" or that she had said, "I don't know why I married you." Mrs. Rappaport's attorney, who was stopped from a certain line of questioning, stated to the court that his theory was that the separation and divorce proceedings were inspired by Mr. Rappaport's jealousy.

"I think in reality he loves his wife and manifested it since this action began," he said. "If this influence was removed, they would be home, living happily." "They can make up if they want to," remarked the court. "I will be very glad if they do."

It remained for an employee of Mr. Rappaport to give a touch of humor to the trial. He told of an incident at the store of his employer and his unexpected action.

"I saw Mr. and Mrs. Rappaport having words in a corner of the store," he said. "Mrs. Rappaport was striking him with her fists. I picked up a customer's cane and walked over here, strike him with this," he said. "The court wanted to know why he hit her, and he replied, he didn't want to see anybody's wife broken. Mrs. Rappaport took the stand and denied calling her husband a little shrimp or striking him. On the occasion of the cane incident, she said the employee was not in the city. Hence, it did not take place. The case was continued until today."

MORE LITIGATION.

IN DE BAKER ESTATE.

An in-laid table, a prized heirloom of the late B. de Baker estate, claimed by Mrs. Carl Kurtz and John T. Gaffey, precipitated a battle for possession before Presiding Judge York yesterday. An heirloom of the table is invaluable to Mrs. Kurtz, a niece of Mrs. de Baker; its appraised value is only $10, but because she believed it was knocked down to her for $10 at the auction February 25, last, of Mrs. de Baker's effects, and because Mr. Gaffey contended that he bid the highest, the court was called upon to determine the matter.

In order to test the ownership, the Probate Court set aside the order confirming the sale of the late Mrs. de Baker's estate and set the matter for trial yesterday on the part of Mrs. Kurtz was that the table was bought for her by Mrs. de Baker, wife of a former judge of San Diego. The auctioneer's clerk said Mrs. Puller was when the table was knocked down to him. Mr. Gaffey testified yesterday that he bought the table from Mrs. de Baker and among others the in-laid table. He said he raised the bid from $10 to $15, and when asked for the table he was told that it was sold. The table was delivered at Mrs. Kurtz's home, and Mr. Gaffey brought a claim and delivery action. The Sheriff seized the table.

TANGLED AFFAIRS.

REVEALED IN SUIT.

The condition of property involved in a remarkable deal, resulting in a fraud judgment being given, will be ascertained by Judge York on Monday for the purpose of determining the amount of damages to be awarded against Reginald H. McGinness and W. P. Cook. The tangled affairs were laid in the suit brought by Maj. Payne against Messrs. McGinness and Cook for a rescission of contract, alleging misrepresentation.

Last August, the trial showed Maj. Payne owned property valued at $60,000. Among other holdings was the residence in St. Andrews place. He alleged that Mr. McGinness made representations to him, which he later ascertained were false. In return for his property he got rights in contracts between McGinness and Thatchers ranch in San Diego county.

DATE COMPANY.

WOMAN SEEKS DAMAGES.

A suit involving $60,000 damages was transferred from Kern county to Los Angeles and filed yesterday. The action was brought by Mrs. E. Orr against D. B. Moyer, E. F. Gilbert and the Moyer & Gilbert Date Co., Inc. It is alleged that the defendants induced her to give them a mortgage on her Kern county ranch, valued at $60,000. The mortgage, she says, turned out to be a trust deed for $10,000. Most of this sum the state she put back in the purchase of stock in the date company. This stock, she claims, is practically worthless.

ONE OR OTHER.

MAY GET THE DECREE.

In the eyes of Judge Monroe the Young divorce suit heard yesterday and continued until today for copies of letters passing between Dr. Frank P. Young and Mrs. Ethel P. Young, "looks as if both are bound to get a divorce—if one would not, the other would."

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

NO DIVORCE.

Unable to corroborate her allegation of desertion, Mrs. Mary C. Stephens, wife of Thomas C. Stephens, part owner of the San Francisco Seals, was allowed an opportunity by Judge Monroe yesterday to furnish additional testimony. Mrs. Stephens alleged that Mr. Stephens deserted her at Santa Monica, February 1912. For three years, she declared, they had not lived together as husband and wife.

Dr. Oscar Anderson, the family physician, and Miss Nellie Roberts, were called as witnesses, but the court did not consider the evidence sufficient. The case went off calendar.

The Stephens were married at Fresno, October 18, 1898. They have a son, Frank, 18 years old. Mr. Stephens is now residing in San Francisco. He was formerly a part owner of the Los Angeles baseball club.

CHAIR BURNS.

BITE BITE COMPANY.

"When is a chair?" The answer to this was given in Judge Finlayson's court yesterday. It was when it is not a stepladder. And thereby hung a tale. In September, 1913, Mrs. Clara Stokes bought a chair from the Bite Bite Furniture Company. Among the goods selected were four oak chairs, which Mrs. Stokes claimed were guaranteed to be strong.

Shortly after the chairs were delivered at her home, No. 319 North Benton place, she started to hang curtains. She used one of the chairs for that purpose, but when it received her full weight standing, a blind leg gave way. Mrs. Stokes fell, striking her back on a box, sustaining a severe and permanent injury. The result was a suit against the company for $25,000 damages, on the ground that the chair was unsafe and dangerous.

COURT PARAGRAPHS.

PROCEEDINGS IN BRIEF.

COLLISION SUIT. The second suit growing out of the tragedy at Altamont street bridge was filed yesterday. The plaintiff is D. Kline, a minor, who sues through R. L. Kline, his guardian. He seeks $10,000 damages from the Pacific Electric and the Santa Fe for bruises and contusions. In this collision between a trolley car and an automobile, three people were killed and thirty-four injured.

WOMAN SEEKS DAMAGES.

A suit involving $60,000 damages was transferred from Kern county to Los Angeles and filed yesterday. The action was brought by Mrs. E. Orr against D. B. Moyer, E. F. Gilbert and the Moyer & Gilbert Date Co., Inc. It is alleged that the defendants induced her to give them a mortgage on her Kern county ranch, valued at $60,000. The mortgage, she says, turned out to be a trust deed for $10,000. Most of this sum the state she put back in the purchase of stock in the date company. This stock, she claims, is practically worthless.

ONE OR OTHER.

MAY GET THE DECREE.

In the eyes of Judge Monroe the Young divorce suit heard yesterday and continued until today for copies of letters passing between Dr. Frank P. Young and Mrs. Ethel P. Young, "looks as if both are bound to get a divorce—if one would not, the other would."

AT THE CITY HALL.

STATE HANDLES MASSAGE WORK.

ARTISTS MUST PASS QUALIFYING TEST, SAYS LAW.

Police Commission's Supervision is to Extend Only to the Hand Workers. While These Using Equipment Must Take Licenses from the State.

The Police Commission's policy in handling bath and massage permits will be materially altered after August 10, when the new drastic practice act, passed by the last Legislature, goes into effect.

The measure will provide that every bath and massage using electrical equipment, upon patients shall pass an examination in order to obtain a drugless practice license from the State.

This will affect about seventy bath and massage artists now operating in Los Angeles, most of whom have been practicing for years. The new law will require that all artists of this kind shall pass an examination in order to obtain a drugless practice license from the State.

Angelenos, is told in a lengthy report submitted yesterday to the Council by Assistant City Attorney Robertson, who was the chief lobbyist for the city at Sacramento during the session.

Mr. Robertson, who did not return from the north until this had been written across each bill in which the city was directly interested, worked untiringly for the measures submitted by the Council and various other city departments.

Most of the measures extend the city's powers in the direction of consolidation and annexation, and in financing public improvements, also to provide for the new conditions relating to distribution of water and relationship with annexed territory.

Among the important measures enacted for the good of Los Angeles, Mr. Robertson reports the following as having passed both houses and signed by the Governor:

Providing for the holding of an election in territory which is contiguous to territory in which the election has been held for the purpose of annexation and which last named territory is contiguous to a municipality.

Providing for the consolidation of districts within municipalities in which bonds may be issued for public improvements. This is known as the district bond act, and is designed particularly for possible use in the acquisition of the Union Hollywood Water Company system.

The Investment Bond Act, which authorizes a municipality to incur indebtedness by issuance and sale of bonds for investing the proceeds arising from the sale thereof in other bonds.

Several other bills which passed both houses and which are pending before the Governor, says Mr. Robertson, but prospects are that a majority of them will be eventually enacted into law.

Gets Quick Action. Councilman George Williams caused a fence to be removed yesterday in record time. The obstruction that has been in the street at Forty-sixth street and McKinley avenue was cleared up with the Board of Public Works.

McKinley avenue has been opened from Fortieth street to Blauson avenue, but although the property owners in the neighborhood are now pending for the use of that street, the fence at Forty-sixth street has obstructed travel. Complaints made to Councilman Williams moved him to instant action, and the fence was removed through an order yesterday.

Salary Fund Deficit. City Engineer Hamilton yesterday reported to the Board of Public Works that at the end of the present fiscal year, on June 30, there will be a deficit of $30,000. "This has been caused principally by the department having a tremendous amount of improvement work on hand," says the Hamilton report. "The department had in May a contract for $25,000, 406.66 for street improvements and $25,875.44 for sewer work. In addition to this, the department has a contract for $14,635, but the money for the improvement of 15.7 miles of street and 4.4 miles of sewer are now running."

City Hall Sprouts. Councilman Roberts yesterday picked up Chief Sebastian's suggestion that a public defender be provided for in the police courts. His resolution to that effect was referred to the Public Welfare Committee.

President Whiffen yesterday heartily endorsed the purchase of two mules and six wagons to haul Hollywood garbage, although it was shown that the cost of the wagons had been done much more cheaply with motor trucks.

SUIT OVER FREIGHT. An action was brought in the United States District Court by the Atchafalaya and Santa Fe Railway yesterday against the Edmund Peck Company, to recover $24,115, alleged to be due on a shipment of 394 boxes of oranges, assigned from Alexandria, Cal., to Eugene, Or. It is alleged the freight was sent to Eugene, and afterward transferred on the orders of the defendant to the Peck company, which then to Sankat, Owan, Can, when it was tendered and refused. The oranges were sold for $14,635, but the freight and refrigerating charges were $487.71, and the action is brought to recover the difference between the value of the railroad company and what the fruit brought at forced sale.
